

Rustic Letter Collection

Product Code: EY10647

These Rustic Letters are a practical yet beautiful resource for extending and developing letter recognition. They can be used in a variety of ways.

- They can be threaded with string which means they can be hung on fences, walls, branches etc. (risk assess)
- Place the letters in alphabetical order and make a line (risk asses).
- Imagine putting these into a sand tray. Children will love hunting for letters. You could even set out mark making boards so children could have a go at mark making the letters they have found. Using a variety of objects to match the sound to the letter.
- You could take these to your outdoor space and use these as a letter hunt. Hide them in different locations and join the children in a letter hunt.
