

The Letters and Sounds decodable book collection is a range of 144 fully decodable reading books covering the phonics phases 1 to 6.

Available in phases 1-6

Key features:

- The progression of sounds across the books matches the progression in 'Letters and Sounds'.
- The books have been written using only decodable words and common exception words that fall within each phase.
- The newly introduced graphemes are marked on the front cover of each book.
- The inside cover page of each book has a frieze for the phonic phase and also the 'tricky words' that are introduced in the book.
- There is a selection of fiction and non-fiction books available.

Letters and Sounds decodable books can be bought in either:

- Individual phase packs
- Guided reading phase packs
- Complete collections with all books from across phases 1-6.

Phase 6

Fiction Books Phase 6

L110092
12 books

Consolidate previous phonics learning with this collection of fiction phonic readers. The Phase 6 books have been written with a rich vocabulary including a range of words that contain suffixes.

The books provide engaging reading material that not only develops the children's decoding and blending ability, but provides interesting stimulus based on real life topics that encourages discussions. The books contain attractive and inviting pictures, using both real life images and illustrations and it makes a refreshing change to see non-fiction texts produced for the early readers. It was great to see some of the boys, especially the reluctant readers, actually excited about choosing a book to read.
